2.Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

St. Joseph's GNS is a Catholic Girls' Primary School with a Catholic ethos under the patronage of the Bishop of Dublin.

"Catholic Ethos" in the context of a Catholic primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Roman Catholic Church, which aims at promoting:

(a) the full and harmonious development of all aspects of the person of the pupil, including the intellectual, physical, cultural, moral and spiritual aspects; and

(b) a living relationship with God and with other people; and

(c) a philosophy of life inspired by belief in God and in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus; and

(d) the formation of the pupils in the Catholic faith, and which school provides religious education for the pupils in accordance with the doctrines, practices and traditions of the Roman Catholic Church, and/or such ethos and/or characteristic spirit as may be determined or interpreted from time to time by the Irish Episcopal Conference.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of St. Joseph's GNS shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.

' The mission of the Board of Management and Staff of St. Joseph's Girls School is to enable each pupil to achieve her full potential physically, academically, emotionally, culturally and spiritually, in a happy, safe, caring and tolerant environment imbued with a Christian ethos.

In partnership with parents and guardians and in line with the curriculum directions of the Department of Education and Skills we will work to achieve this aim'

Our school ethos continues to reflect the Christian values of the Holy Faith Sisters, who were founded in 1867. We are now managed under the patronage of Diarmuid Martin, Archbishop of the Dublin Diocese. As such, we adhere to the SCHEDULE OF A CATHOLIC SCHOOL, which .... aims at promoting the full and harmonious development of all aspects of the person of the pupil: intellectual, physical, cultural, moral and spiritual, including a living relationship with God and with other people.

In St. Joseph's GNS we cater for pupils of all faiths and none
