

6th Class

Hi Parents

I hope that you and your family are doing well during this tough time. We understand the difficulties and want to remind you that the health and well-being of you and your family is most important. This work suggested is a menu of work that the girls can work through at their own pace. There is no deadline for completing this but I would like to remind you can email anything the girls have completed. The use of a timetable can be so helpful and I have a suggested daily one that might be of help.

Girls,

I hope you all enjoyed the Easter and used it as a good break from the school work.

Did you do something creative and enjoyable? Some of you might have found it tougher than before because of the change in routine and that is ok too.

I really enjoyed chatting on the phone to you all and I honestly was so proud to hear of the work you have been doing and the positive outlooks you have.

I want to remind you that you can email me your work that you have done. If you have something you have completed I would only be delighted to see it and give you some feedback about it. There is no pressure to email work but it could be something to help motivate you also so you don't forget how amazing you are doing. This work suggested is a menu of work that you can work through at your own pace.

Just a reminder about a timetable, I'm sure you can start to see the benefits of having a timetable set up for yourself.

Try planning your timetable on Sunday evening for the week ahead. Getting into a good routine will keep you busy and occupied and keep your brain active and learning!

This is an example based on a full school day. Please adapt to what suits you.

Also remember if you have one day that doesn't work to your plan, start again. Don't be too hard on yourself.

The Eight Beatitudes

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

This is the story all about The Beatitudes.

The Beatitudes are a set of teachings by Jesus. They are intended to guide your behaviour.

Whenever He spoke, a large crowd usually gathered. More and more people began to listen to Jesus.

One day, Jesus took His disciples to a quiet mountainside. He sat down and began to teach.

There are two versions of beatitudes – one recorded in the Gospel of Matthew, and another, in the Gospel of Luke.

The two versions have major differences, like the time and places they were recorded at.

The Sermon On the Mount by Carl Heinrich Bloch, Danish painter, d. 1890

Matthew says that Jesus went up on a mountain side and sat down. That is why we call the sermon the 'Sermon on the Mount'.

It was common in Jesus' day for teachers and rabbis to teach sitting down. Teachers sat because they often taught for extended periods of time. Today, teaching in church is usually done standing up.

The Church of the Beatitudes, located in Israel, on a small hill overlooking the Sea of Galilee, is built on the traditional site of Jesus' delivery of the 'Sermon on the Mount'.
